Our FRN may assist in improving services by reducing duplication, promoting prevention, streamlining service delivery, and serves as a clearinghouse for information from the state level to the community in which we live and work. I have heard it said that at the FRN "we don't make a lot of the products you buy, we make a lot of the products you buy better" Through the efforts of the FRN, local communities become stronger ensuring that the future becomes brighter and the programs that benefit the community become better.
