

West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources
INTEGRATED BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CONFERENCE
SEPTEMBER 22-24, 2015
Charleston Civic Center | Charleston, WV

Building Trauma-Informed Systems of Care

Interactive Skill Building Sessions | Massage Therapy & Acupuncture
Book Signings | Recovery Celebration Concert with Templeton Thompson

Nationally Recognized Speakers

Dr. Joan Gillece

Carol Hudgins-Mitchell

Dr. Hendree Jones

William Kellibrew

Al Killen-Harvey

Dr. Gabor Maté

Dr. Mel Pohl

Ross Szabo

Mary Vicario

Join Honorable Governor Earl Ray Tomblin (invited) and West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources Cabinet Secretary Karen L. Bowling for an opening ceremony.

This interactive event will offer learning, networking and renewal opportunities.

Right on time topics include: integrating physical & behavioral health in community settings, canine & equine therapy across populations, motivational interviewing, youth-led prevention & recovery, cross-disability resilience methods for treating trauma, substance use & child welfare and more!

$199

Register today at epay.wvsto.com/IBHC_Conference
Meals and snacks included!

FREE events open to the public include a session on keeping kids safe online and a recovery celebration concert with Templeton Thompson.

Visit dhr.wv.gov/bhhf/ibhc for the conference agenda, information on hotel registration, partners and exhibitors & more! Email questions to IBHCWV@wv.gov