Some medications or quantities of medication require Prior authorization by the Bureau for Medical Services. This means additional information is needed from the prescriber. If the request meets the BMS Pharmacy Program criteria, the Bureau will approve the request. The member will be charged only the Medicaid co-pay for the medication.

By signing below, you indicate that you understand the following:

- You have been informed that this medication requires Prior Authorization by the Bureau.
- You have chosen not to request Prior Authorization through the pharmacy or the prescriber.
- In order to receive this medication without the Bureau's Prior Authorization, you will have to pay the usual and customary price of this medication.
