

PC Q & A Call – April 19, 2016

No questions were submitted this month.

One comment from the providers regarding billing:

Provider reported that they had been instructed by Molina to submit a list of their PC members, the authorization number for each member and each member's birth date. Since they have submitted this information to Molina, they have not had any more denied claims.