Radio Drops:

Script 1

It's that time of the year again when we are all getting ready to send our kids back to school. Remember, if you have a child that will be in Kindergarten, 7th or 12th grade this fall in WV, they have shot requirements. Most children in these age groups already have the vaccines which are required but avoid the last minute rush and ask your doctor or local health department if your child has the shots they need for school this fall.

Script 2

Can you believe we are just ____ months away from school getting underway again in WV? So Parents, here is a quick reminder if you have a child that will be in Kindergarten, 7th or 12th grade this fall -- they have to meet certain shot requirements for school. Most children in these age groups already have the vaccines which are required but if you want to avoid the last minute rush, you can ask your doctor or local health department if your child has had the shots they need for school. Is it me, or is it hard to believe, it's almost time for school again already.
